Pallotine... a place to remember.

Sister Karen was a favorite of all.

We all had fun in the graveyard

Retreat was a time to be yourself. As you can see they try hard.

Debbie Bergfeld receives Wine from Father in the chapel that we'll never forget.

And these three innocent faces are the ones who really T.P.ed the halls and got the rest of us in trouble.

Cindy, Jean and Gerry enjoy getting outside.

SENIOR RETREAT

SENIOR PLAY

Could that be Father Raphael and his magical violin??

17 cokes, 12 tacos, 4 fries, and spill proof tops, TO GO PLEASE.

OUR HAPPY CAST??!!

TOP, L. TO R.: J. Koziacki, J. Kozel, A. Wyrwich, D. Mack, D. Gregory, K. Przasnyski, J. Buttice, M. Kauflin. BOTTOM, L. TO R.: M. Paskiewicz, G. Zimmermann, K. Corey, R. Mankus, K. Grassi, J. Corey, M. Donahay, B. Straub, C. Straub.

Why don't you "MIX" by me?

I must warn you... You're my first... victim

MATCHMAKER

I'm trying, I just can't get the pitch.

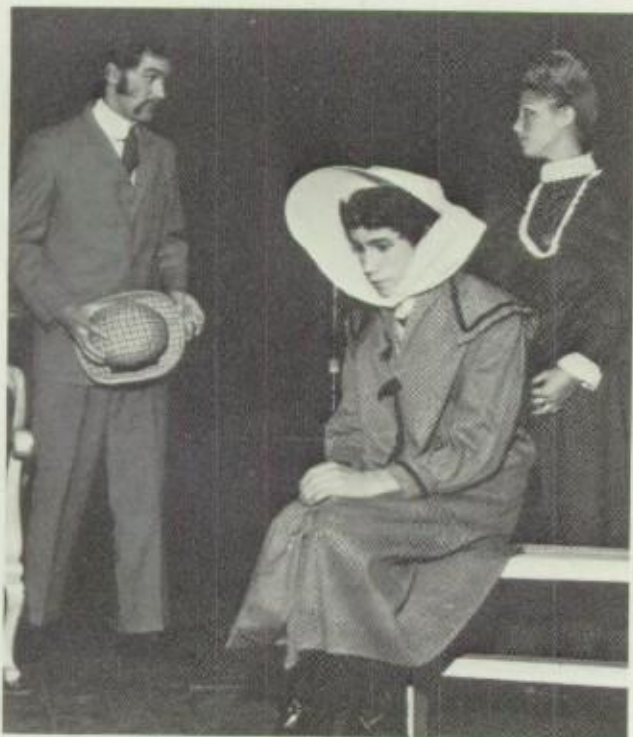

How could you? The "disease" at a time like this!!

The lights went out, the mikes failed, entrances were missed, but the STAGE CREW pulled us through.

I'm ready for anything!

I think that's someone's sister, or is it my sister??!!

More deodorant please!!

THE COURT

Queen Kathy Gianino and her escort Curt Cardwell.
The Prom of 1974 was held at Carriage House.
The Theme was Nights in White Satin.

Queen Kathy and Curt dancing to the theme, Nights in White Satin.

SENIORS TREAT THEIR MOTHERS

Cindy Hutter and Cathy Callahan join in with the rest of the Seniors to toast their mothers.

Mrs. Schaper wishes all the girls all the happiness in the world and the mothers join in too.

After the long line waiting for food, everyone was satisfied and we all had a nice day out with our mothers.

Janet welcomes everyone.

Jean, Bobby and Mary. They look like they can hardly wait.

CLASS DAY

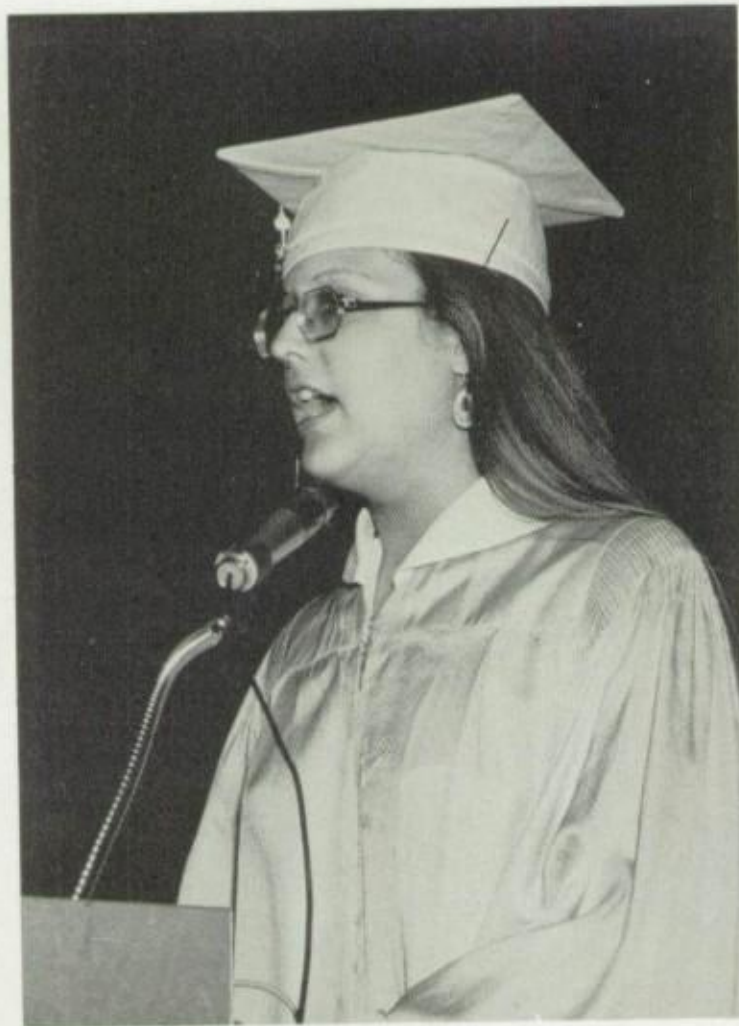

The graduating class of 1974 sings "Sunshine on my Shoulders" for their little sisters for the last time.

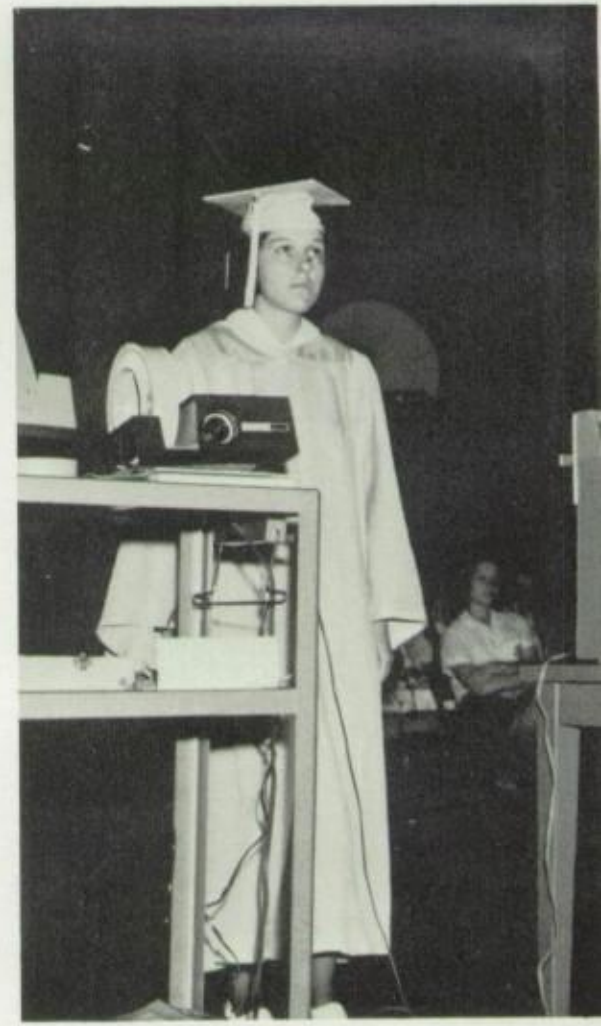

Barb distributes the flowers.

Rev. John Turner gives the farewell speech to the Seniors.

Pres. Jan Schaper gives the greeting.

Joanne shows the slides.

Our little sisters sing Daniel with tears in their eyes.

Each Senior received a flower from her little sister.

GRADUATION

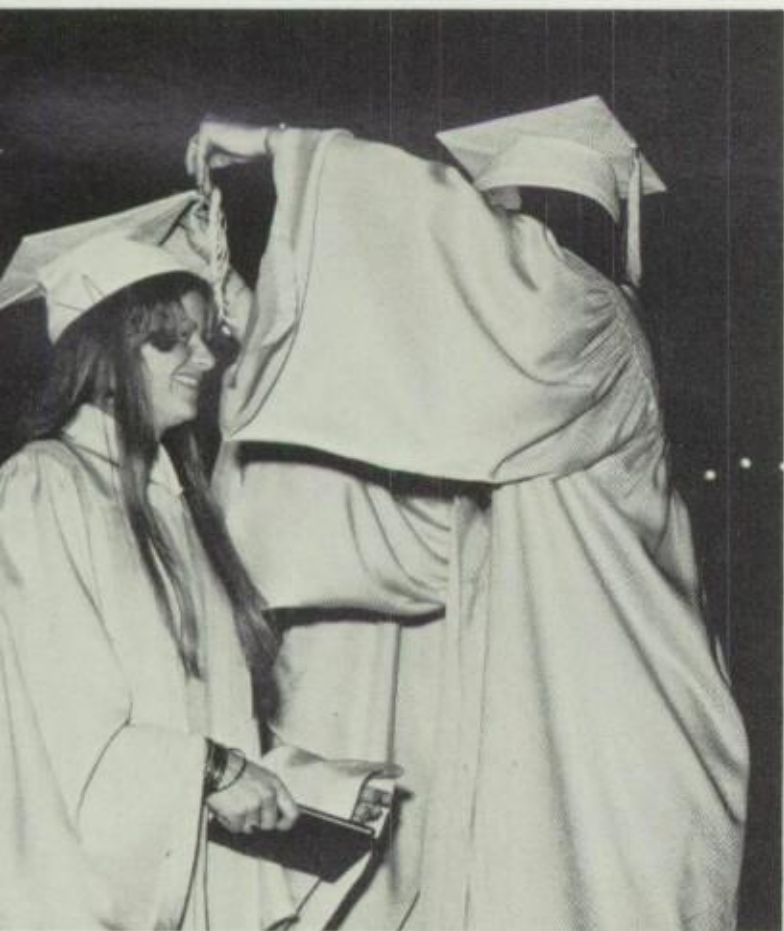

The Commencement Exercises began with the procession.

The reading of the Petitions.

Michele receives her diploma with a smile.

The turning of the tassels.

Msgr. Baker gives the Homily.

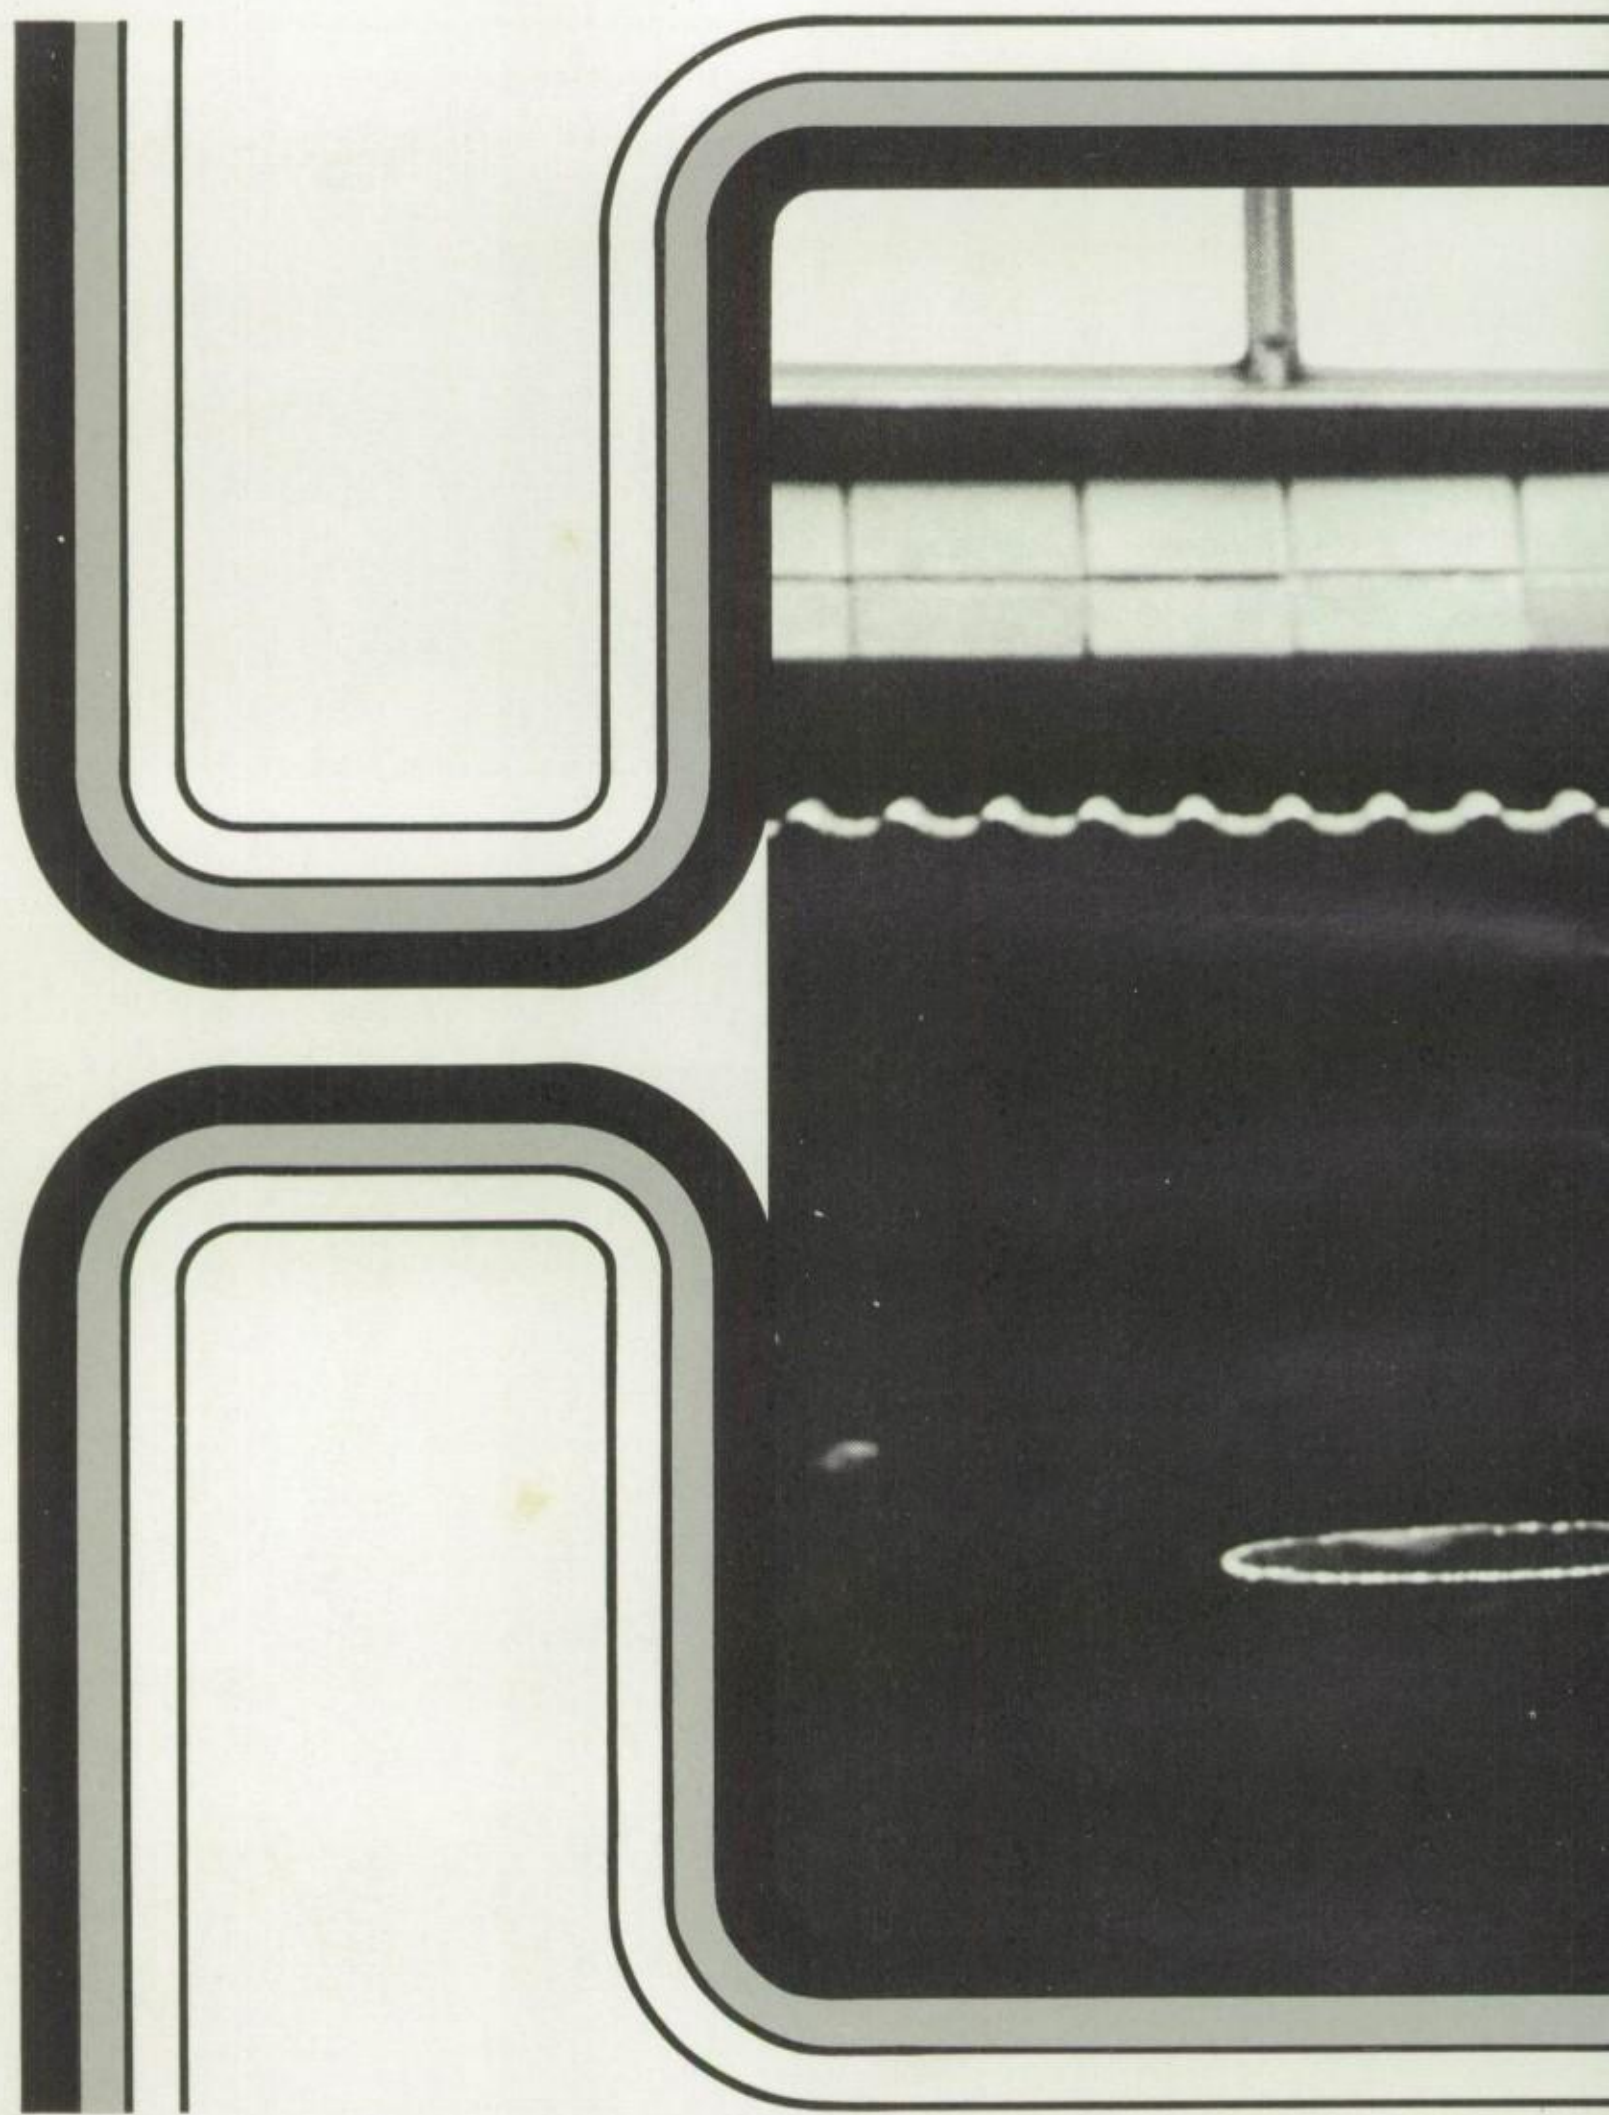

I told you it was going to rain!

Sharon receives flowers from her family.

The Seniors leave church with such reverence!

They would never make it as a trio.

It can't be all that bad!

Some people have the most original pose when you take their picture.

Some people really need lessons.

JUNIOR RETREAT

Smile! It can't be that bad.

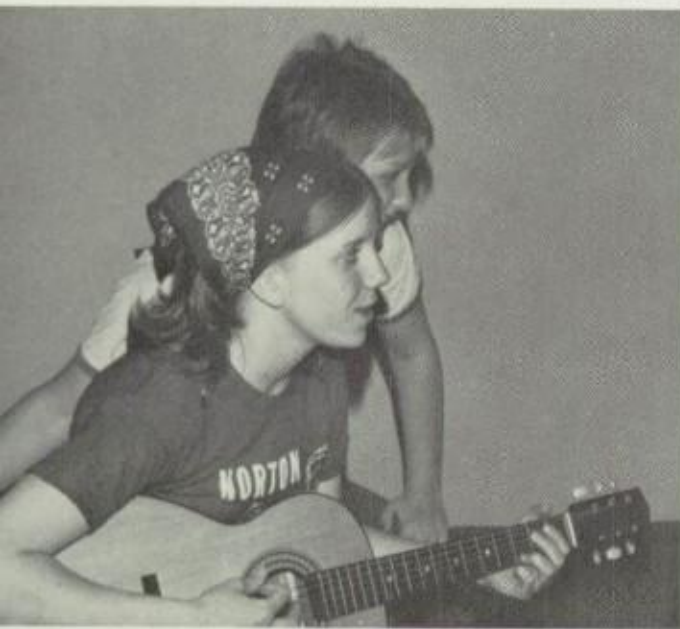

Everybody take a turn and tell us about the pictures that you picked out.

Mark, Greg, Joe, Karen, Norb.

Retreat was a time for togetherness.

There was a time for everything.

I think they are crazy.

Thanks to Sister Karen and the seminarians the 1974 Junior retreat was something we won't be able to forget.

VICTORY IN POWDER PUFF GAMES

Saron Sieve shows a little of what made our team come out on top!

The Coaches, Dan & Steve, tell the girls a little of what they know. Mike listened in too.

And there goes Wild Wilkins out for the tackle.

Camille gets the ribbon one way or another.

I would like to know what was said before that great pass was thrown by Buettmann.

Tina she's not that big.

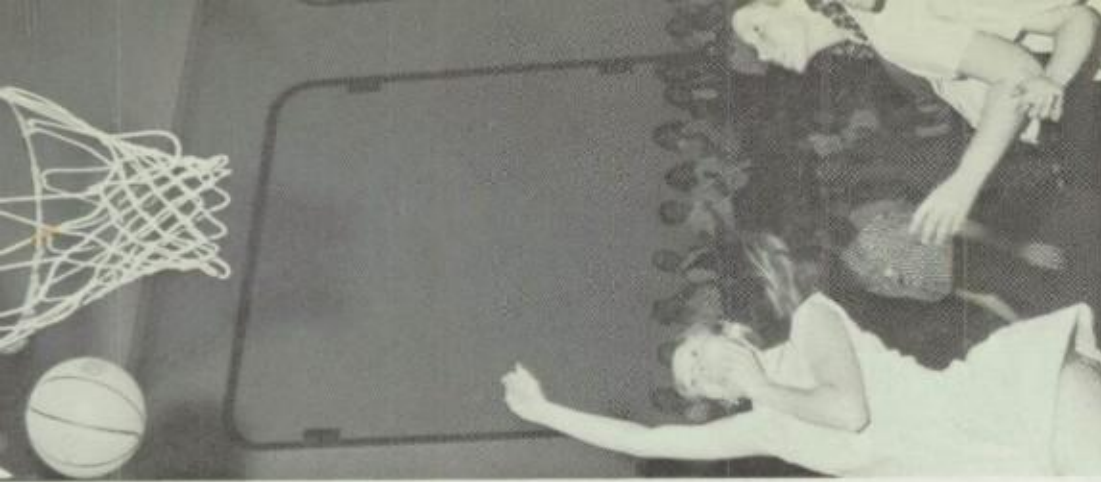

Now that's what I call using your head.

Juniors win over the Freshmen, but they put up a good fight.

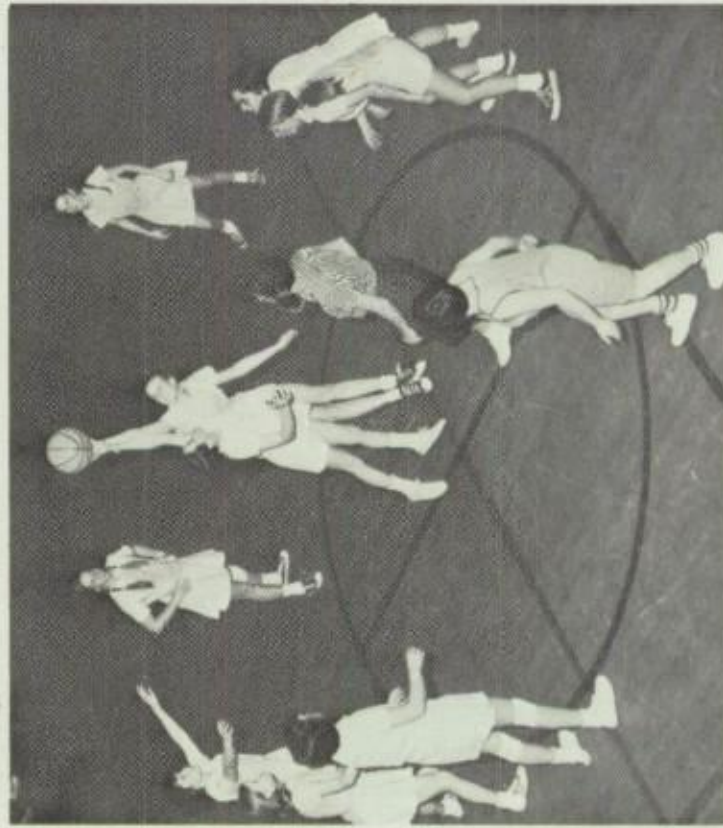

Thebeau displays a little talent.

Kathy Lowe shoots and makes 2 for the Seniors.

Fernandez shoots for the foul and makes it good.

And... The Jump!

Polson take it easy.

Hutter shows us a little of her skill.
Buttice take that ball don't wait around for it.

This year the class of '75 was defeated by the class of '74 in our yearly Basketball Intramurals. These games are played between the classes at S.A.H. The Seniors won the first game against the Sophomores and then won the title game against the Juniors with a fantastic score of 21 to 4. '74 we're No. 1.

Move over please, I need a little more room to jump.

SPORTS IS?
